Reception of the Confirmation Class Members

Youth Led Worship Service

Christian Education/Spiritual Formation:

Donkey Tales, the musical that our Sunday School Singers gave as a gift to both God and our congregation during worship on Palm Sunday, showed the talent and dedication of our third-sixth grade kids! The cast (Annali Criswell, Finn Dugan, Colin Evatt, James Hicken, Joey Tortorella, Elvin Matthews, Amanda Popovich, Jane Rodavich, Kaitlyn Kunz, Liam Dugan and Scott Schultz) worked hard on lines, singing, signing, choreography, and getting to practice. Nancy Schultz, director, worked hard on the vision, the details, and contributed her creativity and energy. The crew (Lynne Wallis, Jennifer Tancraitor, Jan Schroeder and Ellen Heriger) worked on props, prompting, costumes, staging, working the sound board, organizing the cast party with food, games and activities, with help from Dawn Hicken, Nadine Eichenmiller, and Ron Brussemi. The parents helped the cast learn their lines and songs at home, and got them to all practices. Thank you to everyone! Check out Donkey Tales photos on the web (plus recently added: New Orleans Mission Trip, Pretzel Day and butterflies) www.wallacememorial.org

We look forward to our YOUTH leading worship on May 31 for 10:00 worship. During this worship, we will welcome our Confirmation Class as members. This class, led by Joan Humphrey, has been meeting weekly. During the year, Greg Mildner, Patrick Martinelli, Caileigh Purcell, Kiersten Badzgon and Kelly Rodavich have explored: the Trinity, hard questions of faith and biblical overview (Joan & Roy Humphrey), spiritual practice and image (Ellen Heriger), sacraments, the liturgical year, Holy Week and polity (Pastor Molnar), music as worship (Tom Davis), mission (Harriette Apel, Sally Petro and Bill Gery) and are developing a faith statement with their mentors. Mentors include: Lynn Wren, Jan Schroeder, Sally Petro, Keith Tarbi and Cory Robinson. Following worship will be a reception for our Confirmation Class.

May 17 marks the final day for our Sunday morning classes until Fall.

Our High School graduates include: Joe Caruso, Becki Martinelli, Phil Molnar, Keith Rieger, Brian Rodavich and Matt Scorzafave. Wil Forrest, Bill Heidkamp and Ellen Heriger are gathering with them three times this Spring, centering discussion on transitional areas such as: social, mental/emotional and spiritual.

The Read & Review Book Club will close the year with Eat, Pray, Love by Elizabeth Gilbert on May 14 (7:00 - 8:15 PM in the Lounge). This group is flourishing with lively discussion and shared insights. All are most welcome.

We have been holding Jeffrey, Ayo's four-year-old nephew, in prayer for some time. He has started chemo therapy yet again - possibly one to two years of chemo, weekly in the hospital and daily at home. In addition to your prayer, please consider sending him a card, perhaps include drawings that your child or grandchild might make for him, and let's embrace him with love. Address:

An invitation to all
Young Adults...

After finishing the highly-programmed period of life known as high school, many young adults struggle to find a place in the life of the church. They are no longer youths, but do not quite share the interests and life experiences as those who have been in the church for many years. Knowing that each generation that comprises our church family is important - younger, older and everyone in-between – a new group of young adults has formed for young adult members and friends of Wallace Memorial.

Over the past few months, the fledgling Young Adult Fellowship group has studied the Gospel of Mark during Lent, we have read and talked through The Shack together, we have shared in intercessory prayers and prepared care packages for participants in the Hope Program aiding those recently leaving prison and re-entering society with the support of this Christ-centered program. We have also traveled a bit together – to the Clayton House at the Frick, to East Liberty for a Taize prayer service and to walk the labyrinth and to Hidden Valley to go skiing with the church. And no proper Presbyterian group would be complete without food. So, we are eating ourselves around the world, so far we have sampled the cuisine of Germany, the USA, Ethiopia and India. Come join us as we continue our journey around the globe!!

While we have met a few times, the membership changes each time. We plan to continue to meet about every three weeks or so and to rotate nights, times and events, so that we may have a broader appeal and to offer the availability for different folks to join in. So if you are out of high school and in your 20s or 30s, please put Wallace Young Adult Fellowship events on your schedule. You, and we, will be glad you did!!
Let's share in Christian fellowship serving and enjoying God together.

Here Comes Wally!

Dear Friends,

Spring is really starting to come. We've had some good weather. I hope it keeps getting better. I like this.

Did you have a good Easter? We had a great day, starting with Church, and we made it to your Easter Breakfast. It was great. Those guys did a fantastic job. All the kids who went up for Pastor Molnar's First Message got to take a flower home after the service. Did you get one? That was so nice of one of your members to donate them.

I hope you got to the Concert on April 26th. I plan to be there.

Boy, those Penguins are doing a great job as I write this. I hope they go all the way.

I hear the Youth are going to Camp Crestfield in early May. That should be a great trip. I hope some of you will be going. You can drop me a note to tell me about it.

Have a good Spring. It's great to be able to go outside and play.

Love, Wally, III

OPEN LETTER TO CONGREGATION FROM MICHAEL FISHER

Dear Pastor Dennis, Terri, and Wallace Memorial:

Thank you so very much for the letters and the well wishes and prayers. Being so far from home, it's nice to know I'm not forgotten.

It's impossible to imagine those who served in previous wars without the luxuries of web cams and wireless internet. Being able to see and talk to Andy and Carrie has made all of this so much easier.

We cannot thank you enough for the boxes of "goodies." Many days we don't get to eat regularly, and protein bars are a great way to get some quick calories on the go. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

I can't get into our missions too much as they are all classified top secret; however, we are in a very unique role to actually make a difference. At this point in the war, very few people/troops are in a position to make an immediate impact on the safety and stability of this country. Every successful mission makes the people of Iraq a little safer.

Thanks for the continued support. I look forward to seeing all of you when I get home.

God's Gifts and Blessings to All,
Michael

Financial Up-Date

As the final quarter of the church fiscal year has begun, the congregation is facing an expected shortfall between income and expenses. This deficit will be significant by the end of June if giving does not change. As we "cut back" on expenses for the next 2 months, we are also "appealing" to the congregation to examine their "capacity to give" in order to diminish the anticipated deficit. Please examine your personal giving to see if you are keeping pace with your pledge, and if not, consider how you can catch up during the next 2 months. Perhaps you are in a position to add a few dollars to your offering during the up-coming weeks. Even in these difficult times, some of you may have received a tax refund or even a bonus payout. A special one time gift to help the cause would be appreciated. During these economic times we are all making adjustments, and the Building and Financial Operations Committee, the Budget Committee, and the Session will be tracking our current situation, and determine future plans during the course of the next several weeks. If you have any questions or comments, please contact Pastor Dennis; the Treasurer, Mike Wherry; or the Chair of Building and Financial Operations, Jeff Sterling. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response to this appeal.
